COVER - On a clear day, you can see forever - well, at least to Fairhaven. Checking the recent painting of the Mattapoisett standpipe afforded Inspector Merrithew a view the rest of us can never hope to see.

The 330,000 gallon standpipe, located at 177 feet above sea level, was built in 1913 by the Hodge Boiler Works.

Our thanks to William "Nick" Nicholson, superintendent of the water department, for these facts, for the other photos, and for loaning Mr. Merrithew his camera for the view from the top.

NEW WHARF COMMISSIONER/HARBORMASTER RECOMMENDS CHANGES AT WHARF

Steven Mach, the new Harbormaster/Wharf Commissioner, informed Selectmen last Tuesday the town really needs a towing policy for boats. He recommended the town tow a boat only when it is in danger of sinking or is a danger to navigation.

He spoke of an incident off Winnatuxett ment." Selectmen agreed a towing policy is a good idea.

A second area of concern to Mach is the winter sticks in the harbor. Some, he said, have been there for years and they are dangerous. Selectman James Huntoon suggested a notice be placed in the Presto Press informing those having winter sticks in the harbor that they must remove them by a certain date, per order of the Board of Selectmen and Harbormaster.

A third area mentioned by Mach was having office hours at the wharf where he would be available to answer the phone. The hours 9 a.m. to 12 noon, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday were agreed upon.

Mach also recommended replacing the speed signs in the inner harbor and around the mouth of the Mattapoisett River. The board agreed to this idea.

Dry dock storage came in for some discussion. Mach said this was a gray area about when a commercial operator such as Brownell is repairing a boat owned by a person from out-of-town. Should the owner of the boat pay? Selectmen agreed the owner should pay at the rate of 50 cents per foot if from out-of-town, even with a local boat repairer.

The time limit is five days for maintenance and two weeks for emergency repairs. Mach noted there are some boats in the repair area that are long overdue to be moved out. Selectmen directed him to see to their removal, giving the owners a reasonable time to take action.

The board gave Mach permission to purchase a radio for his work. They also gave him permission to hire a student part-time to do odd jobs around the wharf. He stressed he would be on hand when the student is working to give supervision.

GRANTED PERMISSION to the Road Race Committee to hold its 15th annual July 4th race through the streets of town, starting at 10:00 a.m. at Shipyard Park and ending at the starting point. It was noted this five-mile race is the oldest formal road race in the area.

Saying they hope the Selectmen will "bless us with your help", race committee members Robert Simmons, Robert Gardner and Charlie Prefontaine explained the route. Simmons said last year the committee gave out $2,400 in scholarships. "Basically, the runners' fees go for the scholarships; the sponsors pay the expenses," said Prefontaine.

Selectmen DeCosta and Suzan admitted to being watchers of the road race; Selectman Huntoon will be among the runners.

MET BRIEFLY with Town Counsel Donald J. Fleming to discuss by-laws as they pertain to tennis courts and the state's insistence that the town's plumbing inspector be hired under civil service regulations.

Selectmen Chairman John DeCosta said a state representative was coming to talk to board members to enforce this new by-law. The Selectmen had asked Senator William "Biff" MacLean to have Mattapoisett (as a small town) be exempted from the civil service rule. This was approved by the state, where Mattapoisett's inspector is part-time. Fleming cited several by-laws for the Selectmen to use in their discussion with the state agency.

PLANNING BOARD AND SELECTMEN SEEK WAYS TO USE 20 HOURS OF SRPEDD TIME

Ideas and suggestions as to how best use the 20 hours of time for a study that is available to the town from SRPEDD (Southeastern Regional Planning and Economic Development District) were tossed around last Tuesday at a joint meeting of various town departments, Selectmen and the Planning Board.

The meeting was hosted by the Planning Board in the Conference Room with member William A. Matthews giving opening remarks saying he had hoped more town departments would be represented. He welcomed Selectmen John DeCosta, James F. Huntoon and Frank M. Suzan, members of the Industrial Commission and two members of the Mattapoisett School Committee. Matthews said the suggestions should foremost be advantageous to the town.

Tom Pisaturo, director of municipal assistance at SRPEDD, said he knew the town departments wanted to update the aster Plan but that this would be extensive and expensive on a full scale. He did say he felt the town should "zero in on an open space plan, dealing with conservation and recreation areas". If this plan moves ahead with an inventory of open spaces and the town adopts an active plan it could be eligible for 80 percent state funding for recreational areas, the director said.

Matthews stressed there is no doubt the Master Plan needs updating, but the total work is out of the question in the 20 hours of study time available.

Pisaturo said possibly "we could put together a proposal to update the Master Plan". He gave a ballpark estimate of $20,000 to do the complete job.

Huntoon said the Selectmen may have to go to town meeting to get money to do the Master Plan. However, he felt that because schools are the biggest budget item there should be an in-depth study done on them. He cited a previous study SRPEDD did for the three towns (Marion, Rochester and Mattapoisett) that was done with $3,000. from each town. Huntoon told Pisaturo he could take that document and apply it to Mattapoisett only and specify the town growth as it will affect the schools into the year 2000.

Maureen Duff, chairman of the Mattapoisett School Committee, said she would like to see a feasibility study done to consider having one principal for the two elementary schools covering Kindergarten through Grade 6. She said a lot of money is spent on administration and salaries.

Speaking out frankly, Clarence Fountain of the town Industrial Commission, said he is upset with the Industrial Park (Corporate Park). Developers put up buildings, then some don't landscape - "it just doesn't look nice. We have no control over the park development because it is private."

Fountain said he has seen other industrial parks in this state and out-of-state (privately and publicly owned) and they give a developer 90 days to landscape; if they fail to do it, the owner has it done and bills the business operator. At one time there was a beautiful Master Plan for the Park, said Fountain. The Industrial Commission has no validity to enforce in a private development. "Don't waste time or money on the Industrial Park - spend it on something else", Fountain commented.

Richard A. Chase, a long-standing member of the Planning Board, mentioned several studies that have been done over the years but for some reason copies of the reports have disappeared. Chase mentioned the McGuire Report done for the town on water tables and the water sheds. Another study was done by Whitman and Howard about seven years ago. Chase felt there were copies around somewhere; "probably resting in someone's bureau drawer," he said.

Selectman Suzan noted that Ron Michalski's sewer study done for Tighe and Bond covered soil composition and could be utilized in a comprehensive report.

Huntoon said the selectmen's office will round up available past reports and prepare an outline on areas to have SRPEDD cover.

Pisaturo concluded he needs formal guidance as to what is the most important area to study. He said this exchange of ideas with town departments helps him in deciding what is the most worthy.

Matthews expressed thanks for those who did show up and said "we need to get together every so often to check the progress of the Master Plan and to consolidate ideas."

trip, but you have only one day to decide on going. Get your reservation in by paying your $8.50 at our office in the Town Hall on Wednesday, June 26th, or at the very latest, early Thursday morning. More details are available at our office. The bus will leave St. Anthony's at 10:15 a.m. July 2nd.

We hope to plan a big bus trip to Lowell sometime in July. Cost and date will be given later. This should be an outstanding trip with so much to do and see -- the Historic Mill District on an old-fashioned trolley and canal boats, Guard Locks, gatekeepers in period costume, multi-image slide show at the National and State Park Visitors Center, and even a live performance of Mill Era songs and stories with folk artist Alex Demas.

Harold Roeder has planned another Penn Dutch and Poconos 4-day trip starting on September 16th. The price (two to a room) is $212.00 each and includes 8 meals, $25. is due on reservation or by July 16, and balance by August 16th. We are not going to try to describe this trip as a complete brochure is available at our office. It is sufficient to say that it is a fascinating trip and well worth repeating. Talk with any of us who have made the trip.

Harold has also arranged for a trip to the Falmouth Playhouse to see A Chorus Line, probably the most successful Broadway musical in recent years. The date is Wednesday, September 25th, at 2 p.m., leaving Mattapoisett at 12:00 noon. Tickets are $9.00 and reservations must be made and paid for by June 28th. We will be using our own van, so seats will be limited to 16.

Please set aside October 9th for a Wednesday foliage one-day trip. Details and cost will be given later.

The Garbage War

(Information from the Hamlin "Mattapoisett Chronicles", compiled by Bea Johnson.)

The summer of 1909 was chiefly famous for the "Garbage War".

Residents of Ned's Point didn't like the town garbage collector with his rattling wagon waking them up every morning.

He had an old cart with loose planks for a bottom and a shiftless collection of wooden barrels, pails, and boxes, and a stream of filth running between planks all over the streets. He made a din and on a windless day he could be heard quite a distance.

One resident engaged a pig for the summer to dispose of his garbage and his neighbors joined in feeding him their tasty garbage so not to use the town col-

The garbage man got wind of this rebellion and decided to make less noise for the summer folks. He cut a lot of young cedars and tied them around the barrels and pails so that when they knocked together there would not be a sound.

It was a grotesque sight to see this decorated cart going about town in the early mornings. "Wake up and see the 'Christmas tree swill cart'" was a familiar greeting of guests the first morning they were here.

The Board of Health ruled that it was unlawful for anyone to cross the street carrying garbage. The war was on!

Other people had joined the boycott and some burned their garbage and one resident was said to make hers into soft soap.

The topic at luncheon and dinner tables was: "So you live in Lenox, what do you do with your garbage?"

The Boston Herald was completely charmed with the "Mattapoisett Garbage War". They sent down a special reporter and every few days some story about it would appear.

These articles are in Mr. Charles S. Hamlin's scrapbooks in the Congressional Library.

A court battle took place and ended in the State Supreme Court. The decision was, the Selectmen had power to lease out the garbage contract and in the absence of fraud their decision was final.

Everyone was compelled to use the town collector. Alas! Alas! So ended the infamous war of "1909".

received by Harvey Pentleton, 6 Oakland Street, by July 5; $5.00 for non-members, no fee for members in one-design classes. In addition, a cruising Handicap Race will be run - the fee is $10.00 for each boat, including members, if 3 or more enter by the July 5th deadline.

Sunday afternoon small boat races run under the same rules as above are set for those weekends when there are no special events on the calendar.

One of those special events is the Lions' Club's Harbor Days, July 21, when M.Y.C. will handle the sailing portion of this fund-raising event.

Another comes on August 2, 3 and 4, the Buzzards Bay Regatta, one of the largest on the East Coast, to be held at New Bedford Yacht Club. A sponsor since the inception of the B.B.R., Mattapoisett Yacht Club will again run the Green Circle for Widgeons and Beetle Cats, featuring the Leo Telesmanick Trophy for the Beetles. M.Y.C. members will receive a flyer/entry form for B.B.R. along with their membership cards and racing schedules.

Labor Day Special Races are planned for September 1, and the Club's Championship contest is scheduled for August 31. We hope to see a big turnout for all these events.

The other Flag Officers are: Vice Commodore, Burt Corkum; Rear Commodore, David Jenney; Secretary, Bob McGowan; Treasurer, Harvey Pentleton; and Past Commodore, Keith Hiller.

The Mattapoisett Yacht Club always welcomes new members who are interested in sailing and racing. For information contact one of the Flag Officers or the club at P.O. Box 421, Mattapoisett, or call 758-6929.

Chicken Barbeque

It's known around the area as the FANTABULOUS BARBEQUE and according to the committee members, "There is no better Country Chicken Barbeque anywhere in the whole wide world". They are all out to prove it with their Annual Barbeque on Sunday, June 30th at St. Rose of Lima Church, Vaughan Hill Road, Rochester.

About eighty committee members joined forces last week to start final preparations for the Barbeque which will be held on the spacious grounds of the parish just off Route 105 in Rochester.

New Bedford's own DJ Jake Peltier will provide all-afternoon entertainment from noon until 6:00 p.m.

The Chicken Barbeque itself is a half-chicken deliciously barbequed and served with the fixings of potato and vegetable, rolls and butter, sauce and beverage and dessert. But, there are also booths for linguica, burgers, dogs and stuffed clams and a special bakery shoppe and a beverage booth for adults.

Games of chance and skill for children and adults and an Auction have been added as special treats, as well as Crafts and Flea Market.

The grand prize raffle of $1,000.00 is the big raffle attraction, with a hand-made double quilt as a second raffle. To keep everyone interested in the raffles, the committee has added two extras: one is a raffle on an over-stuffed food basket and the other is a raffle on a huge basket of cheer.

The only demand by almost all the committee is that the entire affair be kept "countrified" as much like a Country Fair as possible.

This is Saint Rose of Lima's 24th Annual Chicken Barbeque and it is planned to be the best so far!

Top Award Benefits N.B. Garden

The Garden Club of Buzzards Bay is the 1985 winner of the Founders Fund award given annually by The Garden Club of America to a project of one of its member clubs. This year's winner receives $15,000. The award was announced at The Council of Presidents at the 72nd Annual Meeting of The Garden Club of America, San Francisco, held May 13-16.

The Garden Club of Buzzards Bay won the award to restore the Wildflower Walk at the Rotch-Jones-Duff House & Gardens in New Bedford. During the 1800's the vast riches gained from successful whaling voyages were lavished on magnificent homes and gardens overlooking New Bedford's busy harbor. Today the Rotch-Jones-Duff property alone remains in its original state, a solitary reminder of a grand and glorious era. Built in 1834, the house and gardens encompass an entire block in the heart of the city. Along one side of the property runs a long neglected wildflower walk, which the Garden Club of Buzzards Bay proposes to recreate. The walk is presently a tangle of overgrown shrubs and trees, and its restoration is critical to the completion of the gardens, which are toured year-round by visitors to the site which is listed in the National Register of Historic Places, and is the setting for weekly public concerts in the summertime.

"Laura" at Gateway

A REVIEW BY DAVID B. BOYCE

Most people remember "Laura" as the splendid 1944 film, which starred the beautiful Gene Tierney and contained a lovely and haunting theme song by David Raksin. Those two elements are indelibly strong in the memory.

The Gateway Playhouse in Wareham opened the stage version last Friday night and through no fault of their efforts, the mystery and suspense of the film are virtually lost in the play. Though the theme song is used here, as a reminder (it would seem unconscionable not to use it in some way), the music serves as a signature, rather than a contributor to building dramatic resolution.

The problems with the play grow out of a competition with the film that exist in one's memory. Could a stage production of "The Maltese Falcon", "Psycho" or any primarily cinematic creation escape comparison? It is doubtful. The Gateway production is bothered by some minor problems, mostly technical, which should be rectified.

It is in the acting department that Gateway shows it mettle. The cast rises to the challenge of enlivening what is surely one of the 1940's characteristic museum pieces of dramaturgy. Having a joyous field-day is veteran actor Douglas Bruce, cast as the erudite and bitchily witty columnist, Waldo Lydecker. Nattily assayed in the film by the incomparable Clifton Webb, Bruce rivals even Webb in a delightfully realized interpretation of a period decadent free-spirit, loving and loathing life simultaneously. Lydecker is of such a fine aesthetic sensibility that a poor wine vintage or an underseasoned main dish is enough to ruin his day. Bruce carefully straddles the possible pitfalls of characterization by avoiding cliche. He provides the high-toned sophistication that is essential in balancing the streetwise detective, Mark McPhearson, the investigator of the murder of the title character.

Dennis O'Neil, as McPhearson, is a rough-cut gem. His view of the jaundiced detective is deadly accurate. O'Neil goes for the cliche of the genre type, and wisely tempers McPhearson with an edge of the hopeless romantic, which deepens our interest in his plight. Though occasionally inconsistent as a man crippled by an injured right leg, his emotional commitment remains constantly interesting and involving.

Susan Shaw, as "a girl", and for those few who don't already know, also the lady of the title, is a sultry vixen, seething with sexual need beneath a cool composure. Her husky, deep-toned voice and sensual allure work together with her ability to grasp the innocence of Laura's fickle personality. Ms. Shaw and Hayden wisely let Tierney's classic interpretation remain uncaricatured. But Shaw brings her own heat to the role and to the benefit of the production. Bruce's Lydecker is all the more ill-equipped to deal with Shaw's temptress at the climax, unable as he is to captivate her, except as mentor. Laura's strength becomes Lydecker's undoing. This cogent pairing of wills offsets the weakness inherent in the play, which dextrous cinema editing and scoring was able to manufacture, but not so realistically. This is the great strength of Gateway's production.

More minor roles are well-played. Ann Kenny, one of our area's most gifted Thespian treasures, is Mrs. Dorgan, Laura's suspicious landlady. Neil Murphy expertly plays her son, Danny, who is caught on the horns of adolescence in his infatuation for Laura. Andrew Garcia, making his debut as Laura's fiance, grew steadily after a somewhat tentative beginning. Veteran character actress Sandy Jackson creates yet another offbeat role as Laura's housekeeper, Bessie. While her accent was sometimes elusive, Ms. Jackson well-played Bessie's confusion and Michael Campitelli was just right as an assisting cop.

Theater-goers and particularly film-buffs should see this Gateway production to enjoy

SAND SCULPTURES ON THE BEACH

If you happened to be at Shining Tides beach last week on Tuesday you might have noticed some busy fourth graders building sand sculptures on the beach. Mrs. Homer's and Miss Aiken's fourth grade classes were rewarded for their good behavior all year in Mrs. Thayer's art classes. The students worked in groups using found objects, shovels, pails, etc. to create a mermaid, swordfish, car, whale, turtle, volcano, octopus and an aerial view of a lake. First prize was awarded to the Octopus created by Ricky Cote, Alex Rogers, Kyle Spark and Chad Foster. Second prize went to the Turtle created by Jill Quatrale, Christine Reed, Jim Adams, Merri Gardner, Jon Ruel and Rebecca Alves. Third prize went to the Whale created by Bill Sisson, Joshua Younghan, Trenton Garde, Douglas Motta and Nerissa Malcolm.

MATTAPOISETT GIRLS' SOFTBALL

The Mattapoisett Recreation Commission is organizing teams for the 1985 season. There will be two divisions to allow for greater competition. The junior division is for girls in grades 4-6 and the senior division is for girls in grades 7-9.

There will be two teams from Rochester in the junior division and one team in the senior division. Presently there are enough girls for two Mattapoisett teams in the junior division and two in the senior division. The Recreation Commission would like to have three Mattapoisett teams in each division.

There will be an additional sign-up for any girl (year-round or summer residents) who has not registered this year, on Thursday, June 27th, from 6:30 to 7:00 p.m. at the Center School. Any girl who cannot attend can call Peter Hodges, 758-2460; Sylvia Fales, 758-4575; or Barry Haskell, 992-3767. We only need 6 more girls in each division.

We also need one more coach in the

The Great Grapefruit Diet™

ALL NATURAL APPETITE SUPPRESSANT AND FAT REDUCER

INTRODUCING . . . the latest development in nutritional weight loss technology . . . . . the 4-way, all natural weight loss sensation!

1 GRAPEFRUIT EXTRACT — Fruit enzymes promote fat reduction by stimulating cell metabolism.

2 THE GREAT GRAPEFRUIT DIET also contains GLUCOMANNAN, the amazing vegetable fiber, used in Japan for over 1500 years, which absorbs over 50 times its weight in fluids - giving a comfortable "full" feeling, while cleansing your system. Glucomannan, as a high-fiber substance, has the ability to restrict the absorption of fat and cholesterol in the intestines.

3 THE GREAT GRAPEFRUIT DIET contains kelp, lecithin, apple cider vinegar and vitamin B6 - the oldest and most widely used natural fat-reducing formula in the world - for burning and emulsifying fat and to flush it out of the system.

4 Uva Ursi is added to the GREAT GRAPEFRUIT DIET as a gentle, smooth-acting natural diuretic to prevent fluid retention, puffiness and bloating.

The Great Grapefruit Diet™ is carefully formulated with the best natural ingredients to REDUCE FAT AND SUPPRESS APPETITE . . . . Naturally!

Did you know many old stamps bear a secret message? Watermarks are faint markings put in the paper during manufacture to prevent counterfeiting. Almost all US postage stamps from 1895 to 1916 are watermarked USPS (United States Postage Stamps) in single line or double letters. To see a watermark, put the stamp on a watermark tray and add a few drops of watermark fluid. It should show up clearly.

a.m. and 1:00 p.m. on the Military Parade Field adjacent to the Military Museum on the grounds.

Members of the Company will participate in a musket drill, a fife and drum performance and will talk about the Revolutionary period with visitors to the Museum.

The militia company was one of the first groups to arrive at the Old North Bridge in Concord. The standard of the Bedford Minuteman, since known as the Bedford Flag, is understood to have been the only flag at that conflict and is recognized as the first flag to fly over American fighting forces in resistance to British rule.

The modern Bedford Minuteman Company was reactivated as an historical marching group by proclamation of the Town Selectmen on September 23, 1964 as a means of honoring the Bedford Flag, commemorating events of that April 19th battle in Concord. Its original twelve volunteers have been expanded to over 42 active members.

The uniform of the Bedford Minuteman is not that of the typical home-spun clothing of the New England farmer but one based on the regiment-of-the-line uniform, worn by men of the Continental Army during the American Revolution and utilizing the colors of the Bedford Flag; a gray weskit with red facing, black leggings, white crossbelts and brown tricorn hats over an unbleached muslin shirt, black neck stock and brown pants. A brown greatcoat with red facing and gold buttons is worn by officers and by the men for special functions.

The Company has performed in various parades and ceremonies throughout New England and New York. In the Town of Bedford the Minutemen have instituted and participated in several annual events: opening of the Annual Bedford Town Meeting, a Liberty Pole Capping-and-Raising which is recognized as the initial event of the April 19th celebrations in Middlesex

Cape Symphony

SETS AUDITIONS FOR NEW MEMBERS

Auditions for new players in the Cape Cod Symphony Orchestra will be held during the period July 24 to 30.

There are openings in most sections of the orchestra, including the principal trumpet post, according to Conductor Royston Nash.

A stipend is offered for some positions and travel expense assistance is made available to all players. Rehearsals are generally held on Thursday evenings.

Prospects are invited to call 428-3577 for full details.

Approximately 20 performances will be given by the Symphony during its 1985-86 season, extending from October to May.

Orchestra membership has averaged close to 90 players in recent years. Musicians are selected through audition with the conductor.

"Most of our players have been with us for several years, reflecting a high level of personal dedication," said Nash.

The Cape Cod Symphony Orchestra was founded in 1962 and has given concerts every year since then. About three-fourths of the members are Cape Cod residents.

Presentations by the Symphony are supported in part by the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities.

UNLESS YOU'RE ARRESTED FOR FAILURE TO SUPPORT YOUR CHILDREN

If you're a person who has failed to make child support payments and think you're beating the system, think again! The District Attorney's Office has launched a campaign to enforce the Child Support Laws. This effort will include arrest by the Sheriff, if necessary, of any parent who has defaulted on child support payments.

15,000,000 children live in homes without their fathers. As a result, these children miss more than the companionship of a parent, often they miss the proper care and support that, frankly, only money can buy.

If you want to avoid arrest for failure to support your children, or if you are a parent owed child support payments, call the Child Support Enforcement Unit at 746-8800.
